PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Welcome to the 88th annual Wee Waa Show! What a success our 2023 show was, with attendance and entries at an all-time high. It's inspiring to see that the Wee Waa community supports not only the event but each other.

Gary Hibbens
2024 President

As always, our community event would not be possible without the hard work of a small group of volunteers, whom I must thank, each and every one, for their dedication to the Wee Waa Show. Also, our sponsors; in our current economy, every dollar has to be stretched further, and now more than ever, the generosity and kindness of the businesses and individuals who support our event are greatly appreciated.

The Wee Waa Show Society has worked extremely hard over the past 12 months to put together an exciting, packed weekend. I wish you the very best of luck with your entries, and I look forward to seeing our whole community come together over the weekend to celebrate our great region.

2024 SHOW PAVILIONS

The Wee Waa Show Pavilion has been a long- standing and integral part of the Wee Waa Show since our first ever show in 1927. The Pavilion Sections offer our community a great opportunity to showcase a variety of local talents and interests. If you can grow it or make it, there is a place for it in one of the 13 Sections in the Pavilion - from fruit, vegetables and produce, plants and flowers to cooking, crafts and art.

A major highlight of our Show Pavilion is our Maisie Hibbens "Most Successful Exhibitor" Trophy, awarded to the most successful exhibitor in the Cooking, Handicrafts, Horticulture, Needlework and Patchwork Sections.

A new category to our Show Pavilion for 2024 is the Wee Waa Show "Young Participants Award". This is awarded to a school-aged exhibitor who displays outstanding contributions to either one or multiple exhibits.
